

Paul E. Glick

PAULE. GLICK is the founder and a principal in Glick Consulting Group. In this role, he conducts financial management training courses nationwide for representatives of state and local governments including elected officials, various state and national associations, and certified public accounting firms. He also provides consulting and technical assistance to government clients and CPA firms. Finally, he assists with the development for products and publications for the firm. His expertise resides in governmental accounting and financial reporting and the development of government financial type policies.

Previously he worked for the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia in Athens, GA, the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) in Chicago, IL, a state government, two local governments, a consulting firm and a certified public accounting firm.

Glick has a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Illinois – Springfield, and a master's degree in school business management from Northern Illinois University.