Mr. Forney has over nineteen years experience in all aspects of financial and strategic management, derived from a balanced mix of investment banking and private sector executive leadership positions. He is currently the Managing Director of Raymond James' Public Finance Group. Raymond James is a $3 billion+ full service financial services firm based in St. Petersburg, Florida. Mr. Forney's investment banking experience includes a broad range of debt, equity, and advisory work for many different clients.

Mr. Forney's current client work includes advising on investment policy and implementation for public clients with assets totaling over $20 billion. As part of this work, he has helped revamp investment policies in the wake of the financial crisis, overseen procurement for investment managers, designed customized benchmarks, and monitored all aspects of investment compliance and performance.

Mr. Forney earned an A.B. in Economics from Princeton University and an M.B.A. in finance from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, where he was the recipient of a Morgenthau Public Policy Fellowship. He also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.
