

Certified District Manager Program

Program Description and Candidate Application
January 2012

Program Description

The FASD Certified District Manager (CDM) Program is offered in partnership with Florida State University (FSU), Reubin O'D. Askew School of Public Administration and Policy. Program development began in 2003 and the first training session and subsequent certification exam was delivered in June of 2004 through Barry University. The program transitioned during 2007 to FSU.

While FASD Board has the responsibility for the CDM Program, a Board appointed Steering Committee oversees the program and provides peer review of the qualifications of a candidate. FSU develops and administers the training, and administers the final certification written project.

Initial Certification

The CDM designation requires experience and/or education components as noted in this application along with the successful completion of the written project.

Once the candidates review this document and feels that they meet the experience and/or educational requirements they should complete the application. The application should be submitted to the Steering Committee Chair. The Chair will send the application to one or more Steering Committee members to review and document the experience and educational requirements. Once this takes place, if the candidate meets the qualifications, their name will be submitted to the FASD Board for approval to sit for the certification exam. Once the course and project have been successfully completed the Steering Committee Chair will make a recommendation to the FASD Board to confer the CDM designation. These approvals for the program and recommendations can be presented at each regularly scheduled FASD Board meeting.

Once the FASD Board takes final action on the recommendation, the Candidate will receive a certificate from the FASD and FSU indicating they are Certified District Managers (CDM). The CDM will be entitled to all the rights and privileges according to that title, including the right to place CDM after their name as an indication of their credentials and accomplishment.

Each profession has developed a program that recognizes and promotes professionalism. Certified Records Managers, Certified Public Accountants and Board Certified Physicians to name but a very few. The Florida Association of Special Districts recognized several years ago that the knowledge and unique set of skills required to successfully manage a special district should be developed, supported and recognized. The creation of the Certified District Manager (CDM) program reflects FASD's commitment to promoting awareness, education and recognition of the vital role District Managers play in providing services to millions of Florida residents.....

Acme Improvement District/Village of Wellington

Re-Certification

The CDM designation will require tri-annual renewal. In order to maintain their certification, all CDMs will be required to attend FASD sponsored, certified training programs; completing 15 hours (CEUs) of verifiable training within the three (3) year period. In the event, the CDM does not complete the required CEUs they may retake the exam to maintain certification. The FASD Executive Director will maintain a list of CDMs, and contact them each 6 months prior to the end of the three (3) year period. Evidence of successful completion of the recertification requirements will be submitted to the Steering Committee Chair.

A CDM Graduate who has not achieved the required CEU's, must notify the CDM Steering Committee in writing informing them of their circumstances regarding why they were not able to acquire their CEU's in the allotted time. The following policy will apply in these cases.

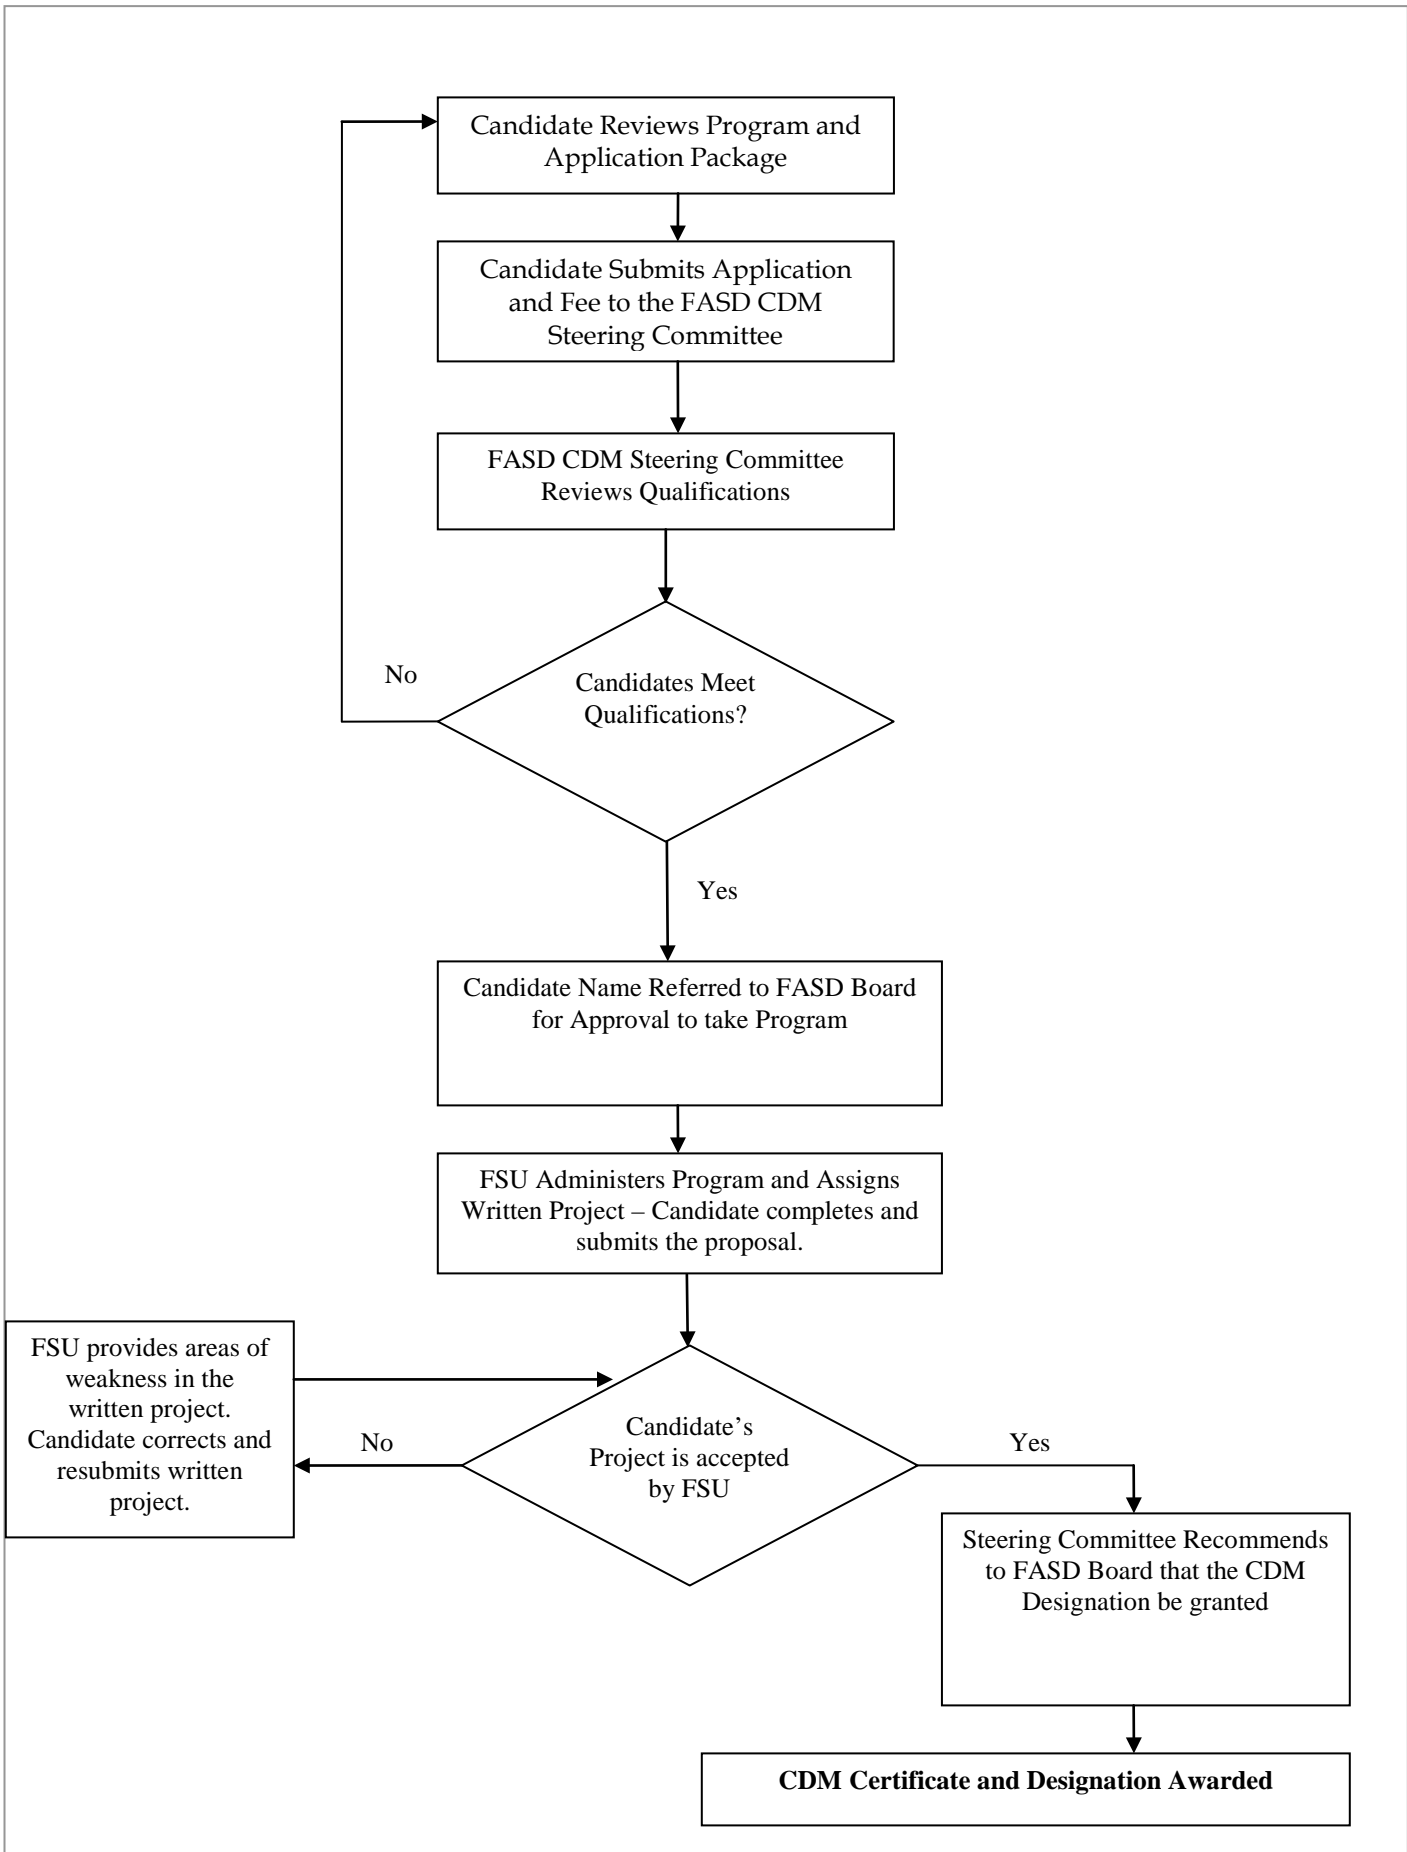

1. Notification must be done prior to the end of their three (3) year certification period.
2. The CDM Steering Committee will then review the individual's circumstances.
3. The CDM will then be placed on suspension not to exceed the time from one (1) annual conference to the next.
4. In addition to the needed CEU's the CDM will be required to obtain additional CEU's within the given allotted time, as directed by the Steering Committee and pay a $50 administrative fee for reinstatement.
5. While on suspension the CEU hours must be FASD - CEU's
6. He/she will not be able to acquire any CEU hours towards their next re-cert until their suspension is lifted.
7. They must inform the Executive Director and or the Chair Person of the CDM Steering Committee, if for any reason they can not attend a FASD scheduled meeting, prior to that meeting, in order so the Committee can review the circumstances and or reasons for non-attendance.

This was one of the most intensive and thought-provoking seminars I have ever attended! While there isn't much that needs improvement within our District, it helped open my eyes to what we might be able to do to make a difference!.....
Eileen Brown, Office Manager, Palm Harbor Special Fire Control and Rescue District.

Continuing Education opportunities will also be available at each annual conference and at some regular meetings. The applicable courses and the number of hours associated with each will be advertised with the conference or meeting announcement after approval from the CDM Steering Committee
